

Dave Lockhart

Senior Consultant

A Senior Consultant at TayganPoint, Dave Lockhart has more than 35 years of experience directing and facilitating the design, development and communication of business aligned corporate IT strategy.

Comprehensive skill set able to lead, develop and facilitate the full strategic IT life cycle: requirements gathering, interviews, functional requirements, technical architecture, service roadmaps and program realization.

Stellar strategic capabilities and experience fully integrating business drivers, technical drivers, service models and financial considerations into comprehensive strategy. Driving the realization of business aligned IT strategy.

Diverse Professional Experience:

- At Merck Dave held a number of positions including Director Enterprise Architecture and Network Engineering. There he was responsible for the architectural design and strategic vision associated with Merck's IT services. Lead IT architect for Clinical Trials, Partner Externalization, Shop Floor, MPLS, Emerging Markets, Mobility and SAP. Overall project manager and strategy for the IT ITSM project. IT service lead for global datacenters and DR infrastructure process/engineering. IT network lead for mergers and overall lead for IT infrastructure service management strategy.
- Dave led a startup that grew from $4 to $150 million in 3 years. Responsible for architectural design of customer solutions, applications development, new technology assessment, partner alliances, and business development.
- At Cisco Systems Dave was the Practice Lead in the Internet Business Solutions Group. Responsible for the definition and communications of Internet solutions to Cisco's manufacturing and retail customers.
- Dave has previously led systems integration. was lead architect, managed 7 IT departments/ 100 employees, lead deployment and strategic direction of all IT services thru 10 years of global growth.

Education:

- Bachelor of Arts in English and History, SUNY Potsdam
- MBA in MIS and Statistics, Graduated with Honors, SUNY Binghamton

In the Community:

An active contributor to his YMCA, Dave is the head coach and founder of the YMCA US Masters Swimming program. Enabling adult athletes to reach their dreams. He leads the aquatic YMCA fund raising drive. Dave has also coached Olympic bound challenged athletes. An active athlete: ironman, open water ocean swimmer and age group world open water champion.

EXPERTISE:

Strategic alignment
Supply Chain
M&A
R&D
Strategy Development
IT Strategy Realization
IT Process/Org Improvement
IT Service Models
IT Architecture
Communications

INDUSTRIES:

Pharmaceuticals
Retail
Defense Contracting
IT Services
High Tech
Manufacturing